

of the ROYAL SCOTTISH
COUNTRY DANCE SOCIETY

The Cincinnati Branch of RSCDS promotes and preserves Scottish Country Dancing in Southwestern Ohio. The Branch offers instruction in Scottish Country Dancing in Cincinnati, Dayton, Indianapolis and Columbus, holds social dances and workshops, and does demonstrations of Scottish Country Dance at numerous events in the area, year 'round.

10 REASONS TO ENJOY
SCOTTISH COUNTRY DANCING

1. It's a social event
2. You can join anywhere in the world
3. You don't need to bring a partner
4. All ages and levels can participate
5. It's a healthy work-out
6. It stimulates the mind
7. New dances come out all the time
8. There is no complex footwork
9. The music is wonderful
10. You make a lot of fun-loving friends!

OF COURSE, THE BEST WAY TO ENJOY SCOTTISH COUNTRY
DANCING IS TO ATTEND ONE OF OUR EVENTS OR CLASSES!

UPCOMING EVENTS

- | | |
|--------|------------------------------|
| Feb 2 | Columbus Winter Workshop |
| Feb 9 | Fine Arts (demo team) |
| Feb 16 | Valentine's dance Dayton |
| Mar 16 | St Patrick's Day (demo team) |
| Apr 19 | Advanced class |
| May 31 | Branch Workshop & Ball |

DEMO TEAM

Andy May at (513) 227-1974
or demo@rscdscincinnati.org

Watch us in action at <http://www.youtube.com/user/CincyRSCDS>

CINCINNATI CLASSES

Location:

Pleasant Ridge Presbyterian Church
5950 Montgomery Road @ Lester
(2 blocks SW of Ridge Ave)

Time:

Wednesdays 7:30 - 9:30 p.m.
September - May

Levels:

Beginner & Intermediate

Teachers:

Tracey Applebee
Susan McLennan (beginners)

Dress:

soft-soled shoes and light clothing

Fees:

$3.50 per night, first visit free

Contact:

Jill Cole at (513) 631-2429
or: cole_js@hotmail.com

For Dayton or Columbus classes and further information, visit our website:

<http://www.rscdscincinnati.org>